"One of the most remarkable collections of articles dear to the heart of a Connoisseur"

Corner of old St. Ann's Churchyard.

Branch: South King Street.

The . . . Connoisseur

Treats on all subjects interesting to Collectors and persons of culture.

THE articles are written by acknowledged experts, and are illustrated by unique photographs and drawings of important examples and collections from every part of the world.

The high standard of excellence by which the magazine has been distinguished during the three years of its publication is fully maintained, and when bound it forms a standard work of reference.

If you have never purchased a copy, do so, and you will be struck at the lead that Great Britain has taken, at any rate, in the production of a really artistic, and at the same time, thoroughly instructive and interesting publication.

Gowans's Colour Prints

WITH the object of encouraging really high-class artistic decoration of the home, Messrs. Gowans & Gray have commenced the issue of a series of coloured pictures by leading artists, painted specially for themselves, in neat brown paper frames, ready to hang on the wall, at the quite unprecedented price of One Shilling each.

No. 1. is "MY POOR DOG TRAY," by Charles Pears, in which the artist has been eminently successful in rendering the pathetic line from Thomas Campbell's well-known poem, The Harper, "Nor refused my last crumb to his pitiful face."

No. 2. is "APPLE BLOSSOM," by Jessie M. King, in which this remarkable artist's beautiful line is seen at its best.

No. 3. is "THE SCENE OF GRAY'S ELEGY," by Stephen Reid, being a view of Stoke Pogis Churchyard to which the famous elegy refers, painted on the spot by the artist.

These prints can be had through any bookseller or printseller, or direct from the publishers for 1/4 each, post free.

A limited edition on large paper of One hundred signed and numbered Artist's proofs will be pulled of each print. These can be had at the price of One Guinea each.
